Family-Friendly Photo Contest in Tempe

Tempe, AZ – Communities for Kids, an initiative sponsored by the Tempe Community Council, is hosting its first “C.L.I.C.C.” (Children Living In Caring Communities) photo contest, open to Tempe residents of all ages. Pictures will be judged on how well the photograph captures Tempe as a “Family-Friendly” community. Photographs must be 4”x6” size, and submissions will be limited to one per person. Residents can drop off their pictures at one of the five Walgreens Photo Centers located in Tempe or at the Tempe Community Council located at the Governor B.B. Moeur Residence, 34th East 7th Street Bldg. A, Tempe, Arizona, 85281. The following information must be included with the photograph: name, age, phone number and/or email. Photos will not be returned. The deadline for submission is Friday, February 11, 2005.

First, second and third place winners will get the chance to win one of the following prizes: tickets to a Childsplay production, a $100 gift certificate to Arizona Mills Mall, or dinner at a local restaurant. The first place winner will receive recognition from the Tempe City Council. For more information, contact Christine Bartlett at 480-858-2467 or visit <http://community.tempe.gov/children>.
